

Shape

Softwares for machining centres

Shape is the software with which you can freely create figures of any shape, freely composing lines, arcs, holes. It is also possible to import figures in DXF format. The 3D display helps better understand the figures at non-constant depths. With Shape, machining operations are now faster than would otherwise be achieved by arranging “standard” figures.